

PRICE ONE CENT. EVENING EDITION. NEW YORK, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1887. EVENING EDITION. PRICE ONE CENT.

THE SUBWAY WORK TO STOP.

GEN. NEWTON SAYS THAT THE TRENCHES MUST BE CLOSED ON DEC. 1.

He Disclaims All Responsibility for the Discharge of 5,000 Laborers—Contractors Criminals for the Agitation of the Matter—Additional Trenches May be Opened if the Weather Permits.

The agitation over the discharge of 5,000 laborers on the Electrical Subway work continues. There seems to be no prospect of a revocation of the order closing the trenches by Dec. 1.

LOVE, JEALOUSY AND DEATH.

A Tale of Early California Days Recalled by a Battered Pistol.

A rusty pistol barrel, the relic of a dramatic and sanguinary episode which occurred in this State before it had passed from under the dominion of the Mexicans, can now be seen in one of the glass cases in the museum of the State Mining Bureau.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

LONDON SOCIALIST LEADERS.

Hyndman and Morris Both Men of Great Eminence in Literature.

One thing that especially struck me when looking at the features of the recent revolt among the "lower classes" in England was the fact that the leaders of the extreme wing had not been chosen out of the ranks of the two most notable of these leaders are H. M. Hyndman and Wm. Morris, both of them "well born," as the Germans say, and both of them men of eminence in literature.

When I met Mr. Hyndman he was living in his own domicile, as a man of fortune, in a fashionable quarter of London; his bearing and manner were distinguished and his social standing was high. He is a graduate of the University of Cambridge, and has been a member of the House of Commons. He is a man of great energy and a man of great intellect. He is a man of great energy and a man of great intellect.

It seems to me that Mr. Crimmins is responsible for spreading the reports abroad that this department is to be closed. He is a man of great energy and a man of great intellect. He is a man of great energy and a man of great intellect.

NOVEL STEP OF UNIONISTS.

Nova Scotians Want to Take Their Case to Washington.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 29.—The advocates of commercial union in Nova Scotia are about to take a novel step to present their case before the International Commission now sitting at Washington, and subsequently to Congress itself.

They allege that a large majority of the people favor commercial union and that the Commercial Unionists are unrepresented before the commission, all the British Commissioners being opposed to that scheme. They believe commercial union to be attainable now as the basis of the settlement of the fisheries dispute, and realizing that if the fishery question is settled on the basis of commercial union it is effectively killed. If commercial union is not adopted they prefer that the commission end in a fiasco.

EX-SENATOR ECCLESINE MARRIED.

He Weds Miss Piedra Garcia de Tejada in St. Ann's Church This Morning.

Ex-Senator Thomas C. E. Ecclesine and Miss Piedra Garcia de Tejada, daughter of Mrs. Teresa Garcia de Tejada, of 200 West Fifty-sixth street, were married this forenoon at 11 o'clock. The bride is a brunette of Spanish appearance. She lived for some years in the United States of Columbia, where she was born, the family being of Spanish origin, but she is not related to the late President of Mexico, as might be inferred from the name. The marriage was celebrated at St. Ann's Church in East Twelfth street, which was blockaded with guests. Father Jackson, assisted by other priests, officiated.

DIAMONDS NATIVE TO THE UNITED STATES.

(From Harper's Magazine for December.)

Diamonds have been occasionally found in a number of localities in the United States, but the crystals are of infrequent occurrence and never in sufficient quantities to warrant any extended search for them. The total number found is not more than a few hundred.

SHARP HEARS THE NEWS.

Told of His Reversal by His Faithful Wife—Mr. Nicoll Still Confident.

A World reporter was the first to reach Ludlow street jail after the news had been received that the Court of Appeal had ordered a new trial for Jacob Sharp.

Warden Keating refused to permit the reporter to see Mr. Sharp, nor would he tell Mr. Sharp of the decision himself, because it is the custom at the jail that only the counsel of prisoners shall inform them of the decisions of the court.

ONE GLASS TOO MUCH.

Thomas Parker, of No. 535 First avenue, quarreled in a barroom early this morning and was struck with a beer-glass on the head, receiving a scalp wound.

PROB'S FAIR PREMIERS.

(WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.)

For Connecticut, fair weather, slight change in temperature; light fresh northerly winds becoming variable.

For Eastern New York, fair weather, slight changes in temperature; light northerly winds becoming variable.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.

LOTTO SUE FOR $50,000.

SHE WAS THE CAUSE OF MR. SAMUELS MISSING A TRAIN.

The Actress Synthesized with a Horse Which Was Being Too Vigorously Driven by a Boston Jock and Interfered—The Suit Causes Her No Uneasiness and She Will "Sleep on Both Ends" in Salem.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

Boston, Nov. 29.—Just before leaving Boston for Salem yesterday afternoon, the popular little actress known all over this continent as Lotta, was waited upon by a "mignon of the law," who served her with papers in a suit instituted against her by Mr. Abram Samuels, in which the damages are laid at $50,000.

Mr. Samuels, who, it appears, is a commercial traveler for a paper concern in Cincinnati, alleges that he has been hindered and delayed in business in consequence of Miss Lotta having been the means of preventing him from catching a train from the Providence depot one day last week.

Under the following circumstances: Mr. Samuels had chartered a horse from the Boston Brunswick to convey him to the depot, and had barely time to make the train. The vehicle was drawn by an ancient animal that was evidently unfit for work. Mr. Samuels, however, was too much engrossed in his business to notice this, and in any case, according to his view, it wasn't his affair.

THEIR FAIR A BIG SUCCESS.

THE LADIES START WELL TOWARDS PAYING OFF THE MASONIC DEBT.

Masonic Hall Crowded with Visitors to the Ladies' Fair—A Chinese Crazy Quilt and an Expensive Sealskin Cloak Attract Buyers of Chances—Some of the Booths and Their Presiding Deities.

People who visit the Ladies' Masonic Fair to-day will find that there exists a unanimous feeling that the opening of the fair last night was an unqualified success. A prettier picture than that seen from the platform of the Masonic Hall last night could not be imagined.

SHARP'S TRIAL AND CONVICTION.

His Thirty Years' Struggle for Broadway and His Sentence for Bribery.

Jacob Sharp's struggle for the possession of Broadway began as early as 1855, and though his schemes met with continual defeat he returned undiminished to the charge again and again. Nobody ever questioned his pluck, whatever might be said about his principles.

SHARP WINS.

Granted a New Trial by the Court of Appeals.

All the Judges Concur in Reversing the Conviction.

The Prevailing Opinion by Judge Danforth and a Supplemental One by Judge Peckham.

A Flitter in the Court of Appeals Chamber When the News Was Announced—Roscoe Conkling, Attorney-General O'Brien and Other Eminent Lawyers Listen to It and Lay Their Heads Together—The Judgment Reversed on the Ground That the Court Erred in Admitting the Evidence of Sharp Before the Senate Investigating Committee, and the Testimony of Pottier, Ex-Alderman Miller, of the Detectives Concerning the Canadian Exiles and of Phelps—The News First Communicated to Mrs. Sharp at Ludlow Street Jail—Assistant District-Attorney De Lancey Nicoll Thinks That Sharp Can Be Convicted Without the Testimony Taken Before the Senate Committee.